Meeting Minutes

Present: Betsey Knapp, Danielle Guggenheim, Scott Wasserman, Meghan Wasserman, Aaron Stayman, Ramdat Singh, Abigail Martin, Morgan Evers, Michael Villanova, Madeline Ritter

The meeting was called to order by Betsey Knapp at 8pm

Treasurer's report (Scott Wasserman)

Scott shared a new budget tracking sheet in the UD shared drive. Our ending bank balance (Feb 28) was $2281. With the tools Scott provided, we will be able to track progress towards goals in membership growth and donations as well as move towards managing expenses against budget.

There was general discussion about whether we should set up a separate account for the Judicial Delegate Campaign. We agreed that simply creating an ActBlue link specifically for the JD campaign would allow us to keep these proceeds separated for accounting and reporting purposes.

Membership report (Aaron Stayman)

We have 96 members, according to Aaron. Abigail's Constant Contact list has 101 so they will reconcile the two lists.

Abigail has been following up with members who have not yet paid dues.

Aaron set up a spreadsheet with new member prospects and asked that we use the spreadsheet to document contacts with these and other potential members.

March 23 meeting (Betsey Knapp)

Betsey reported that people are becoming aware of our club. She recently got a call from City Comptroller Brad Lander who agreed to attend our Apr 27 meeting. He'll be the headliner of that meeting.

Betsey also got an email from Darcel Clark's campaign manager. She wants to come to our club, but has not yet confirmed for the March 23 meeting.

There was a general discussion about whether to endorse in the DA race. Both candidates have been invited to speak to our members. There will be no decision about endorsement until we have adopted a full endorsement process (see below).
